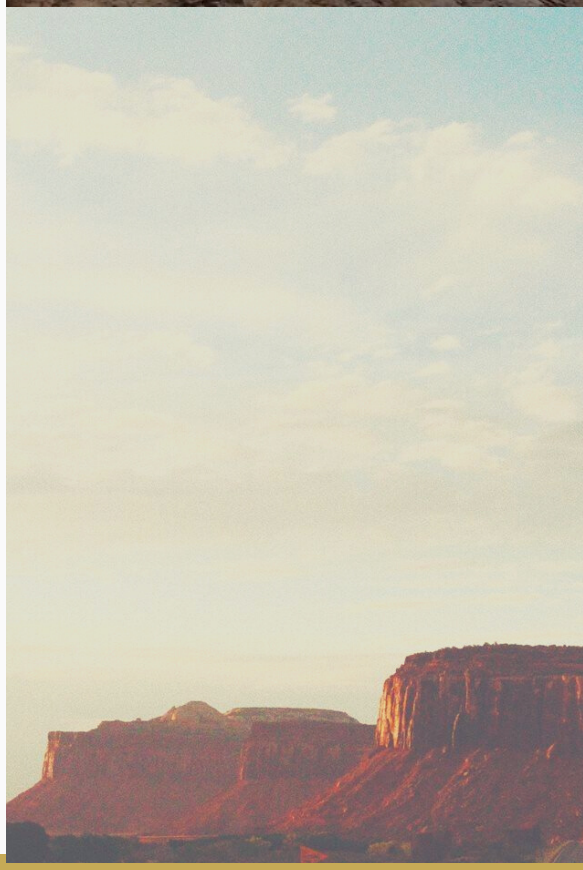
Roy was raised in Nebraska where he says “corn and football are life”. Roy grew up with the mindset of “to get respect, give respect”. He has a beautiful family consisting of his “amazing wife and a son with never ending laughter”. In his free time, Roy tends to spend all his time outdoors doing activities such as fishing, off-roading, hiking, camping, etc. He enjoys going to Moab to hike and see the Arches, Canyonlands, Hells Revenge, Fins & Things and Poison Spider.


Roy is standing by, ready to help you. If you’ve been in an accident in the greater Salt Lake, Provo or Ogden areas, contact us at LifeLaw. We want to assist you with your recovery and personal injury claim against the insurance company. We will get you the settlement you deserve.
